THE COURTS—JUDGE

Boyd.—This court was in session yesterday morning, with Judge Boyd presiding.

A. Gillespie's heirs vs. Alex. Gillespie, guardian; motion was made to appoint the Receiver of this Court Guardian for the minor heirs, and taken under advisement by the court.

L. R. Hamm vs. P. Mahoney; judgment for plaintiff for $32.70.

Rose Strauss vs. T. Curran, suggestion; answer of Blayne filed and agreed to by attorneys.

The bond of D. M. Thornburg as a Notary Public, in the sum of $300, was approved.

L. Baker vs. H. Rinehardt; put on trial before the following jury: Francis Elbert,

W. H. Othol, T. C. Cockayne, Louis

Haller, Thos. Cox, Zane Phillips. The jury returned a verdict for plaintiff for $50.37.

POLICE COURT—Judge Cramer.

There was but one case before Judge

Cramer yesterday morning. His name was John Hines, and he was fined $3 and costs for frequenting houses of prostitution. The fine was paid, and John was discharged from custody.

TOUCHED WITH SAINNESS.—The death of Mr. Luther Lutes, which occurred yesterday morning at his residence on the island, after a long illness, was the feature of peculiar sadness. The deceased came here from Meadville, Pa., late in the fall of 1876, as the contractor for the painting of the Capitol building, upon which work he has been constantly engaged for nearly a year, having only completed the job within the last few weeks. He brought his family to this city in January, 1876. Pleased with Wheeling and her people Mr. Lutes had concluded to make his home with us and had connected himself with A. W. Paull & Bro., in the painting, papering and decorating business. Of a modest and retiring demeanor he had made but few acquaintances and was therefore comparatively a stranger in our midst.

The few who have known Mr. Lutes immediately found him a man of honor, good citizen and a pleasant man.

Among his brethren of the Odd Fellows he was in excellent standing, and that Order will to-day have charge of his funeral obsequies. He was also a member of the new order of Knights of Honor recently established in this city, which is designed to give to its members, without limit, the benefit of a life insurance policy, and he is the first member of the Order in this State, who has died.

The members will attend his funeral in a body.

The bereaved wife and her little family have met with the whole soul sympathy of a people who are noted for their warm hearted remembrance of the stranger who has been with them.

TEMPERANCE POINTS.—Ex-Mayor Bob

Love, of Steubenville, and Chancellor

Jake Kemple will enlighten the Temperance points of the city, by a series of lectures to-night on the subject of temperance.

A noon prayer meeting was fully inaugurated yesterday at 12 o'clock in the lecture room of the English Lutheran Church, under the auspices of the National Temperance Union. Quite a number were in attendance, and it is earnestly hoped that every one will feel sufficiently interested to drop in, if only for a few minutes.

Temperance meetings were held last evening in the Fourth St. North St.

Street, Wesley, Fulton and Baptist

Times are now favorable for new building enterprises, and it would be strange indeed if the present season does not witness a remarkable development of enterprise in that direction.
